ABSTRACT

Lili Nutsubidze's poetic world stands out as an exceptional phenomenon within Georgian literature. As the beloved poet of the Georgian people, she adorned national poetry with numerous masterpieces.

Among Lili Nutsubidze's works, the poems dedicated to love, the purest of human feelings, are particularly distinguishable. The poems have garnered the interest of many renowned composers who have then composed beautiful songs based on them.

Lili Nutsubidze's poetry reflects her boundless affection for Kutaisi, her hometown. She devoted exceptional care and dedication to safeguarding the Georgian language, which she perceived as encompassing the entirety of the universe, history, and experiences, whether joyous or challenging.

Lili Nutsubidze possessed a special gift for instilling a positive mindset in her readers, achieved through words meticulously and delicately chosen in her writing process. The poet skillfully employs figurative expressions, epithets, metaphors, similes, and so on. Academician Besarion Jorbenadze stated,

‘in the works of a talented poet, the language takes on a newfound brilliance.’ Lili Nutsubidze's poems have the power to infuse even commonly used words with a renewed vibrancy.
